20, Bradmore Road,
Oxford. May 27.

Dear Macmillan,

I enclose 2 letters from Ramsay. – We ought to get some money somehow – what will the R.G.S. do? Do they need additional pressure? I see that Sir C. Wilson has been put on the Council He will help – They should be told that unless they take care Germany will get

20, Bradmore Road,
Oxford.

the whole credit of a good piece of English work. Nor do I think that the Hell. Soc. can afford to stand aside. Newton will be fretfully hostile - but that need not matter. I should like to propose at an early Council meeting that we make a grant - say £50. Anyhow we must do something - Mowat will back us up -

Hogarth is doing really well for a first start.

Yrs Henry Pelham