ADVERTISING IN HELLENIC SOCIETY MAILINGS & PUBLICATIONS 2008

Do you want to reach a specialist readership of those interested in the history, archaeology, art and literature of Ancient Greece, the Hellenistic world and the Byzantine Empire?

Why not advertise in the JOURNAL OF HELLENIC STUDIES with its supplement ARCHAEOLOGICAL REPORTS? Or include a brochure in one of the mailings to members of the Hellenic Society? Or purchase our membership data for your own specified mailing?

In 2006, these Journals were sent to c. 3,200 members and subscribers as follows:

Individual Members: United Kingdom c.1,550; Overseas c.550 (c.250 Europe, c.300 USA, Canada, Australia, Far East) Total: c. 2,100

Subscribers (Libraries, Institutions): United Kingdom (c.150); Overseas (c.355 Europe, c.595 USA, Canada, Australia, Far East) Total: c. 1,100

You may have an advertisement in the Journal of Hellenic Studies itself, or have a leaflet enclosed with the Journal or with another of the Society's mailings.

Subject to the approval of the Council of the Hellenic Society, you may also purchase the name and address data of the Hellenic Society's members to use for a one-off mailing of your own.

ADVERTISEMENTS

JHS 128 (2008) will be published in late October / November 2008 and will have an advertisement section of about six pages. The rates are as follows:
