

SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF HELLENIC STUDIES: GRANTS FOR SCHOOLS

The Hellenic Society Schools Sub-Committee makes grants to schools to assist projects concerned with the teaching and promotion of Greek or Greek civilization. Grants are also made to other bodies with programmes especially directed at, or of interest to, school pupils. Typically, grants are for books and other teaching materials, Classics days or conferences, school productions of Greek drama, and summer schools. [The Committee regrets that it is unable to make awards to cover travelling expenses for school trips, teacher or salary costs, school overheads, or school equipment and fixtures.] Applications from schools planning to start courses in Greek are especially welcome.

Most grants awarded are in the range £100-£300, but larger awards are occasionally made. Applicants seeking assistance for projects should provide a full breakdown of costs (eg numbers and costs of books required) since the Committee may consider making an award to a specific aspect of a project for which it cannot provide full support.

There are two annual deadlines for grant applications: May 1st with schools notified by June 1st; November 30th with schools notified by December 1st. (Please email applications to office@hellenicsociety.org.uk)
