Name of applicant: Dr Evelien Bracke

Brief description of the project for which the grant was applied for and subsequently used: The project was a summer school in ancient languages with participants studying a variety of courses; advanced Greek, advanced Latin, intermediate Latin, post-beginners Latin, beginners Latin and beginners Hieroglyphs. As well as the classes, extra-curricular activities were organised including talks by guest lecturers and excursions to a museum and a local historical site.

Date or period of project:
17/7/16-30/7/16

Was the project successful? Did it engage the students?

Students gave very positive feedback including:

‘Well organised, communication and registration as good as ever. Cannot beat this on value for money compared to similar language schools elsewhere’

‘The lessons were really enjoyable in a good sized group’

‘As usual, I loved it’

‘The Best Ever...and that’s taking into consideration [when it was at] both Lampeter and Durham’

‘I wasn’t looking forward to it [studying poetry], but it was actually loads of fun and interesting!’

‘A huge amount of learning took place in a short amount of time because of the excellent teaching, it far exceeded my expectations’
