

Founded in 1879, the Society for the Promotion of Hellenic Studies has for almost a century and a half been the leading organization for the study of Greece with an international membership across all ages and walks of life. It offers an interesting and varied public events programme, supports activities in schools and universities, maintains a world class library and publishes world-leading journals in the field (The Journal of Hellenic Studies and Archaeological Reports).

All Hellenic Society members are entitled to:

- ❖ receive their own print copy of JHS
- ❖ a print copy of AR or ARGO
- ❖ online access to the archive of JHS
- ❖ Remote access to JSTOR
- ❖ membership of our London library
- ❖ attend all the Society's lectures and other events

Library benefits for members

- ❖ Members in the UK are entitled to borrow 4 books for a 30 day period
- ❖ Postal loans service within the UK
- ❖ Paper copies or scans supplied by post or electronically to members outside London
- ❖ Late opening during term until 8pm three evenings a week

Membership Rates

Full £54 (£53 by Direct Debit)
Student £25

Student membership is available to students registered at all Universities and other institutions of higher education.

Note on the subscription year: The membership year runs from January to December. Members who join after 1 September may either join for that year and receive the print journals published in November, or join for the following year, in which case they can use the Library, borrow books and enjoy the other benefits from the date of joining, but will not receive their print journals until the November of the following year. If joining between September & December please indicate clearly on the application form whether you wish to join for the current or next year.

Life membership: £270.00

Available to members who are 65 or over and have been full members of SPSHS for five consecutive years.
