My dear Macmillan,

The letter you suppose an answer to yours was written & posted on the day you wrote.

I shall write (have in part written) with full details of accounts 1883 & 1884, and a little more information on all points. Accounts have been ready for days, but all details take time: I have numerous lectures & a paper on hand

Yrs truly
W.M.R.
