

Northern Association for Ancient Philosophy Meeting April 2019

The annual meeting of the Northern Association for Ancient Philosophy took place at the University of Manchester on 15th-16th April 2019. It was the first time the meeting had been held at Manchester since 2013. There were sixteen attendees at the meeting, from Aberdeen, Cambridge, Durham, Edinburgh/Mexico, Leeds, Manchester, and Oxford. As always, the programme included two papers by current graduate students, selected via a blind review process. Two further current graduate students attended as bursars. All four graduate students had their travel, accommodation and subsistence paid for by the Association, thanks to a generous grants received from the Classical Association and the SPHS. As is traditional, the meeting provided a friendly and engaged community in which to develop and discuss new research in Ancient Philosophy. The programme is set out below.

Jenny Bryan (jenny.bryan@manchester.ac.uk)

13.30 – 14.00: Registration

14.00- 15.30: Dr Frisbee Sheffield (Cambridge): "Philosopher as "Dependent Rational Animal": Philia and Return to the Cave in Plato's Republic'

15.30-16.00: Tea/Coffee

16.00-17.30: Carlo Cacciatori (Durham): 'The Moral Epistemology of Plato's Philebus'

17.45-19.15: Dr Karen Margrethe Nielsen (Oxford): 'Truth in Nicomachean Ethics VI'

19.45 Dinner

Tuesday 16th April

10.00-11.30: Arthur Harris (Cambridge): 'Aristotle Physics 7.4: A New Interpretation'

11.30-12.00: Tea/Coffee

12.00-13.30: Dr Nicolò Benzi (Manchester): 'Gorgias and the prize of truth: a reading of the Helen and the Palamedes'

13.30-14.00: Business meeting