Dear Maemiban

I am glad to hear that you have seen Ramsay.

Immediately after I wrote to you last Pelham sent me a letter from him, written while he was still suffering from fever, & despondent in tone. Since then we have had a more cheerful one, enclosing the paper which I send on to you, as to his proposed geographical work.

I do not know whether Pelham has written to any one in the R. G. S. We agreed to ask you to apply to them again. It will certainly be well if we can get on for this year without further private subscriptions. We should have a better chance next year, if all the money has not been spent upon jubilation.

I believe there is a meeting of the Council of the R. G. S. next Monday.

The cheque & authority as to the use of the A. M. fund will reach you through Pelham. He will also send you a certificate as to Mr Rupert Clark.

Yours very truly
J B Moore

G. A. Macmillan Esq.

P.S. Ramsey has probably shown you that Mommson has written about him in the Hermes. It is not flattery.
