

The Hellenic Society, founded in 1879, is the leading organisation for those interested in the language, literature, history, art and architecture of ancient, Byzantine and modern Greece. It offers an interesting and varied public events programme, supports activities in schools and universities, maintains a world class library and publishes world-leading journals in the field.

Publications

All members receive:

- ❖ their own print copy of The Journal of Hellenic Studies (JHS) and a print copy of either Archaeological Reports (AR) or ARGO
- ❖ online access to the archive of JHS

ARGO is a full colour magazine for everyone interested in Greek culture, both ancient and modern, featuring articles about art, archaeology, theatre, travel, literature, and much more.

The Hellenic & Roman Library (www.hellenicandromanlibrary.org)

Members can enjoy access to the Library, which is maintained jointly with the Roman Society and the University of London's Institute of Classical Studies. It is one of the world's foremost Classics lending libraries and contains over 150,000 volumes, including almost 700 current periodical titles, and many digital resources.

If you are not able to visit the library, you can still benefit from access to JSTOR and the Digital Loeb Classical Library. Members can also request postal loans and scans from books/journals.

Events

We organise a programme of public lectures and conferences, visits to sites and museums, and lectures arranged with local branches of the Classical Association. You can watch past events on our YouTube channel:
