

TELEGRAMS BOARSHILL.

YOULBURY,
NEAR OXFORD.

Nov. 23.
1901.

Dear Macmillan

I am obliged for your letter of Nov. 22. Thanks for hurry in issue of Appl.

I find H.C. to my surprise account to you of my past years expenditure. I enclose a cheque (per to Macmillan & Co.) of £100 for additional work

q. Corroctia & metruich.
This meter & total over £2400. Report to send to speak to you about &
letter dealing with the finances solely.

The £250 q. my father has not. I think included in the £1500 paid me for this year's expenses, but rather pleasant & separate little for career. Yours ever Arthur J. Swann.
