

CHRIST CHURCH,
OXFORD.

Dear Macmillan,

The enclosed is for A.J. Evans' excavations at Inossus in Crete - about which he has just given us three admirable lectures here.

Yours sincerely

I wish that the Hellenic Soc. would pass a rule prohibiting the issue of volumes of less than 250 or 300 pages. The new one pp 186 will bind very badly along with the rest. Vol xix 348 pages xviii 363 pages.

xvii 424 pages

I would much rather wait than have uneven volumes & so I believe would most people who have books. F. Haverfield
