Dear Mr. Macmillan

I owe you an apology for not having replied to your note.
I will send you £ 2.2.
for the Greater Explorers Fund, which I could do more.

I mentioned the matter the other day to Sir Edw. Rixley who is here on circuit.
I think he will do something if you were to write - The work in Crato is not

Excellent & exciting - any other circled Government but ours would lend a hand.

You shall have cheque
in a day or two.

Yours faithfully

Thomas Marshall

I will remember our meeting & am sorry it has not been repeated
